SPRING SERIES: This 4 week series is the parish's principle education-formation focus for 2016, widely advertised and promoted since last Christmas. It is for the whole parish community - 8am, 10am, 3pm, and 6pm. I hope we will all make every effort to participate in this whole-of-parish spiritual formation opportunity together. If you have any questions, please do speak with me. And hold the planning group in your prayers as they prepare for the series. The notes from last year's series are still available in the narthex - these are offered as an aid to refreshing our memory of the terrain we travelled last year, and for further reflection as we prepare ourselves to consider our 'Prayer in Daily Life'. David

The Prayer

R S Thomas

He kneeled down dismissing his orisons as inappropriate; one by one they came to his lips and were swallowed but without bile.
 He fell back on an old prayer: Teach me to know what to pray for. He listened; after the weather of his asking, no still, small voice, only the parade of ghosts, casualties of his past intercessions. He held out his hands, cupped as though to receive blood, leaking from his life's side. They remained dry, as his mouth did. But prayer formed: Deliver me from the long drought of the mind. Let leaves from the deciduous Cross fall on us, washing us clean, turning our autumn to gold by the affluence of their fountain.

WELCOME! SELAMAT DATANG! WOMINJEKA!
