A CRY FROM THE HEART

The woman we meet in today's gospel reading has been described by the New Testament scholar Brendan Byrne as "one of the great heroes of the Bible tradition", or in our modern terminology we would call her a 'super hero'! Why? Out of her desperation, anguish, and love for her tormented daughter, this non-Jewish woman focuses on reaching Jesus and will not accept dismissal and rejection. From her deep conviction that Jesus is the only one who can reach into the chaos of her family's life and bring healing to her beloved daughter, she persists in her faith. She kneels before Jesus in deep respect and begs him in a clear cry from the heart: "Lord, help me". This is all the heart can manage when it is overwhelmed; this is prayer, pure and simple. And there is a cataclysmic result; not only is the woman's daughter healed, but there is an immense upheaval in Jesus' ministry from that point. He is now the Messiah for all- Jew and non-Jew; the geographical and religious walls have come crashing down. We are inheritors of this hero woman's outstanding faith.
