ST JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH, CAMBERWELL
Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost —29 October 2017

Greetings!

As I begin as locum vicar of this church community I expect there will be mixed feelings about how things might turn out and about how helpful an interim ministry will be for the community. This faith community has a long and impressive history and together we are called to know the story of the past while at the same time ensuring faithfulness in the present and hope for the future. Together we share a stewardship of what exists and the challenge to nurture and grow in seeking for truth for ourselves as individuals and together as a church community. As seekers of truth we strive to be sensitive and caring towards each other, listening and conversing while valuing each other in the common pursuit of holiness and Christ likeness. As no one has full knowledge of the truth in this life there is no place in the Christian church for those who claim exclusiveness concerning who is in and who is out of the community. Seekers of truth are able to form communities of faith that are loving, caring, respectful, joyful and inclusive of all who are taking steps, however tentative, towards holiness and Christ likeness. My hope and prayer is that together we will use this interim time as an opportunity to deepen our commitment to God and to each other as we enjoy the many blessings that we have received and will receive as we look towards the future with hope.

At this stage my locum ministry will initially be part time; I expect to be here on Sundays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays in addition I will be available to respond to special ministry requirements. My telephone number and email address is published in Contact and I will also be contactable through the parish office.

LECTIONS FOR THE DAY

*Lev. 19:1-2,15-18; Ps 90;
1 Thess 2:1-13; Mt 22:34-46*

St John's 'Parish Covenant' is the basis for all relationships, social interactions, and patterns of behaviour within and concerning the Parish. It is on display in the narthex and available on the parish website. All parishioners are encouraged to sign the Covenant, demonstrating their public commitment to a safe and healthy parish community.

THE PILGRIM CANDLE AND PRAYER:

We are pleased to report that Fr David has safely completed his pilgrimage to Compostela, so the pilgrim candle and prayer have now been removed. Please continue to pray for him as he reflects on his future ministry.

THANK YOU: Five years ago, I was invited by the Venerable (now Bishop) Alison Taylor to join St John's, specially to minister the Indonesian Congregation. Since then it has been a rewarding ministry. There were many challenges, but at the same time, I have had many memorable and pleasant experiences.

Right now I have a few job offers; either working back in the IT industry or continue my ministry in Anglican Churches. But I am seriously considering to take the offer as the Priest-In-Charge at All Saints Anglican Church Kooyong.

I am very grateful to each of you and would like to say thank you for your friendship and for being kind to me and my family. I will take all the good times with me and cherish the wonderful ministry here at St John's. It is sad to say "good bye" but hope to see you again. With love and blessings. Kun.

BARBECUE LUNCH: A barbecue lunch will be held after the 10am liturgy on Sunday 12 November to welcome Fr Ken Hewlett and Mrs Bev Hewlett. More details later, but save the date.

TOMORROW—MONDAY 30 October. The Anglicare Partnership Group will meet at 2.15pm in the Rutherford Room. The guest speaker will be Keith Dempster and his presentation is entitled "An ever-rolling stream" : a look into St John's archives. Afternoon tea will be available, and all are welcome to attend.

ELECTORAL ROLL: The parish electoral roll is required to be revised before the Annual Meeting. Please check your entry in the current roll, on display at the back of the church. If you are not yet on the roll, and have been attending worship here regularly this year, you can apply to have your name added to the roll by 12 noon 8 November. Application must be made on the prescribed form; copies are available at the back of the church. Note that the electoral roll is not the same as the parish roll.

ALL SOULS: REMEMBERING THOSE WE LOVE. All are welcome to celebrate the All Souls' Requiem Eucharist this coming Thursday, 2 November, at 6.30pm. The Book of Remembrance is in the church – you are invited to write into it the names of those you would like remembered at the 'Commemoration of the Faithful Departed'. Perhaps you know someone who might greatly value your personal invitation to celebrate the Requiem Eucharist?

EMERGENCY DRILL: St John's emergency drill, as required by the Melbourne Diocese, will take place next Sunday 5th November immediately at the conclusion of 8am, 10am and 6pm services. Further information will be provided on the day. The Churchwardens.

ANGLICARE CHRISTMAS CARDS and AUSTRALIAN ANGLICAN CALENDARS are available for purchase in November on Sundays at church or the parish office during office hours.

NOTICES FOR "CONTACT" should be in the parish office by 1pm Wednesdays.
