ST JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH, CAMBERWELL
31 March 2019—Fourth Sunday in Lent

Do not go into the garden

Do not go into the garden, Oh! Jesus, do not go into the garden before dawn!

*But if I do not go into the garden in the dead of night,
who will lead you to the sunrise of Paradise?
I will go into the garden in the dead of night.*

Do not let them bind your hands, Oh! Jesus, do not let them bind your hands without a word!

*If I do not let them bind my hands like a thief,
who will break open the prisons in which you languish?
I will let them bind my hands like a thief.*

Do not hang on the cross, Oh! Jesus, do not hang on the cross 'til you die!

*If I do not hang on the cross like a bird,
who will protect you from the flames of hell?
I will hang on the cross like a bird.*

Do not let your heart be pierced, Oh! Jesus, do not let your heart be pierced by executioners!

*If I do not let my heart be pierced like a ripe fruit, from whom will you drink the blood and water that will heal you?
I will let my heart be pierced like a ripe fruit.*

Do not go into the tomb, Oh! Jesus, do not go into the tomb that they have dug!

*If I do not go into the tomb like a grain of wheat,
who will lift from your coffins your lifeless bodies?
I will go into the tomb to sleep there.*
